OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER, CORPORATION OF THE CITY OF BANGALORE.

Notification dated 15th June 1954.

No. A. 1. (13)—52-53. The following bye-laws framed by the City of Bangalore Municipal Corporation under sub-section (24) of section 367 of the City of Bangalore Municipal Corporation Act, 1949 (Act No. LXIX of 1949) for the prevention of sale or exposure for sale of unwholesome articles of food, and sanctioned by the Government of Mysore under section 370 of the said Act, in their order No. L. 1111-14—C.M. 27-52-105, dated the 28th April 1954, are published for general information. The bye-laws will be given effect to from the 1st October 1954.

BYE-LAWS UNDER SECTION 367 (24) OF THE CITY OF BANGALORE MUNICIPAL CORPORATION ACT LXIX OF 1949 FOR THE PREVENTION OF SALE OF EXPOSURE FOR SALE OF UNWHOLESOME ARTICLES OF FOOD.

1. Prohibition against sale of articles of food, intended for human consumption without obtaining sanitary certificate.—No person shall without or otherwise than in conformity with a sanitary certificate from the Health Officer or other officer appointed by the Commissioner [a] use any place in the City for the preparation, storage or sale of articles intended for human consumption or [b] carry on within the City the trade or business of a dealer in or seller or hawker of such articles.

2 Application for sanitary certificate to be made to the Health Officer.—Sanitary certificate to be granted free for hawkers but they should wear badges.—Application for the sanitary certificate shall be made to the Health Officer or other officer appointed by the Commissioner in the first month of every official year or in the case of a place to be newly opened, one fortnight before the opening of such place and such a certificate may be refused or granted either conditionally or upon conditions laid down by the Health Officer or other officer appointed by the Commissioner. The sanitary certificate shall in the case of hawkers be supplemented by a badge which, shall be worn on a prominent part of the body. No fees shall be charged for a sanitary certificate but a nominal fee shall be charged for the badge to cover its cost. Such a certificate is not necessary in the case of places coming under the purview of Section 297 of the City of Bangalore Municipal Corporation Act, 1949.

3. Articles intended for sale or kept for sale for human consumption to be inspected by the Commissioner and other such officer of the Corporation.—Every place where articles intended for human food are manufactured, prepared or stored, packed or cleansed or kept for purposes of sale or sold shall be subject to the control of the Commissioner and other officers of the Corporation and to their inspection at any time, day and night and no person shall prevent or obstruct such inspection.

4. Articles for sale for human food should not be unwholesome and not to be kept alongside any open drain or sewer.—No person shall keep or expose for sale any article intended for human food which is unwholesome or unfit for human consumption nor shall any such article be kept or exposed for sale over or alongside any open drain.

5. Articles for sale for human consumption should be kept uncontaminated.—Every place where articles intended for human food are exposed for sale or kept for the purpose of sale shall always be kept in a clean and sanitary condition.

6. Every person dealing in meat, fish or other provisions intended for human consumption shall adopt such measures to avoid deterioration of such articles and prevent contamination in any manner whatsoever of such articles as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner or the Health Officer.

7. Articles of food not to be stored in rooms where persons sleep or reside.—No person shall store for the purpose of sale meat, fish, milk, ghee or any such other articles of food as are likely to absorb noxious gases or vapours in any room or place in which persons sleep or reside or where animals are kept or in any room or place opening directly into a place where animals are kept or which communicates directly with a latrine.

8. No person shall transmit any article of food intended for sale and likely to be contaminated in the process of transmission, except in such manner as shall prevent all reasonable chances of contamination.

9. Articles of food not to be sold by persons affected with infectious disease.—No person who is suffering from any infectious or contagious disease or from leprosy or open sores shall be engaged in the sale of articles of food intended for human consumption.

10. Penalty.—Any person offending against any of these bye-laws shall be punishable—

[a] with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and in case of a continuing breach with fine which may extend to fifteen rupees for every day during which the breach continues after conviction for the first breach, or

[b] with fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day during which the breach continues after receipt of notice from the Commissioner to discontinue such breach.
